ANOTHER GREAT WEDDING.

Fortunes of Millions Joined in New York

Today But no Ceremony.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Miss Edith

Rockefeller, youngest daughter of John D. Rockefeller, the multi-millionaire, was married at noon today in Buckingham hotel to Harold F. McCormick, son of Cyrus McCormick, the "reaper king" of Chicago.

In point of brilliancy the wedding had given promise of being one of the most notable of the season. The marriage was to have been solemnized in the Fifth Avenue Baptist church. The beautiful

interior of the edifice had been transformed into a tropical garden. All other preparations were on a magnificent scale and a grand ceremony was promised, but

Mr. McCormick found himself confined to his room on his wedding day, ill with an attack of pleurisy which threatened pneumonia, and all the gorgeous arrangements went for naught.

Over a thousand invitations had been issued for the church and from Chicago,

Cleveland, Buffalo, Baltimore, and other cities hundreds of friends had come to witness the ceremony, only to be disappointed.

Financially speaking, today's wedding had more significance than either the Marlborough-Vanderbilt or Page-Whiteney ceremonies, for beside the union of young hearts, the ceremony was the means of linking together two great forunes. Miss Rockefeller is said to be the heirress to more millions than any other young woman in the world, while Mr.

McCormick also inherits an immense for-

The dedication of the new Father

Mathew building occurred last night and was one of the events of Blackinton's history. The exercises took place in the main hall of the building every seat of which was taken though it can accommodate over 350 people, when the seating capacity of the neat little gallery is taken into account. The hall is as pretty as one as one could find. Its wood work is polished pine and its stucco is finished in the natural wood and match it well.

The stage, which is of good size, has a neat proscenium, has a very nice drop curtain, with a few advertisements on it to be sure but with a very pretty marine view in its centre. The hall is lighted by gas from one large candelabra in the centre and some brackets from the side walls, and looked brilliant. Among the au-

SUBURBAN NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in Our Neighbor Towns.

AT ADAMS TODAY.

A Hasty Marriage. - An Entertainment at St. Mark's. - G. A. R. Building Committee Elects Officers. - A Lively Runaway. - More Accidents at the New Mill. - The High School Debating Club.

The High School Debating Club. A meeting of the high school pupils was held at the school Monday afternoon and nearly every pupil was in favor of the proposed debating club. Harris Richmond was chosen chairman of the meeting and this committee was appointed to draw up a set of by-laws and report at a meeting to be held next Monday evening. Miss Christine Sayles, Willis Anthony and William Dunn. Officers will also be elected at that time. An informal vote showed the sentiment of the club in the matter of meetings, to hold them alternate Friday evenings at 7:30 o'clock.

Their Pockets Picked. The "Garry Owen" company which played at the opera house Monday evening met with a singular experience in the theatre in which they played at Cohoes, N. Y., Saturday evening. During the play sneak thieves rifled their clothes and took money from the pockets. Tony Farrell, the star, had seven twenty dollar bills in his vest pocket and two of them were taken.

A Lively Runaway. Right after noon Monday one of Henry Burt's horses, driven by Chester Langweather, took fright at something or another near Dr. A. K. Boom's residence and ran down Columbia street, ending up near the Berkshire mills. Mr. Langweather was thrown out but was uninjured. The thills of his vehicle were broken.

The Memorial Building Project. The Grand Army building committee and the committee of the associate members met at the Freeman office Monday evening and elected W. B. Platt as chairman and James P. Magenis secretary. The matter of a memorial building was discussed and the committee thought it advisable to go in with the public library committee and erect a handsome structure for which they would expect some aid from the town. The committee will meet this evening in joint session with the library trustees, in Grand Army hall.

A Hasty Marriage. Miss Mary Ellen Ashworth and Clavis Bolter were married Monday evening by Town Clerk Munson. The marriage was rather sudden to Bolter and he had little time for preparation. Bolter is a member of H. Henry's minstrel show, which played in North Adams Monday evening. His home is here, however, and last night when Officer Hildebeck went to North Adams and confronted him with the news that he must either marry Miss Ashworth or answer in court to a charge of bastardy, he came to Adams and had the ceremony performed. Bolter returned to his company this morning.

Three Accidents at the Mill. Monday afternoon Patrick Keating fell from a ladder at the new Berkshire mill and sustained several very painful cuts about the head and face. No bones were broken. Dr. Riley dressed his injuries. This morning a beam fell upon Max Aubel's leg and bruised it very badly, near the ankle. Henry Tiber had two fingers caught in the elevator and crushed. Dr. Boom attended them both.

Lawrence Nichols, who resigned his position in the local office of the American Express company, Saturday, has taken the position of night clerk in the North Adams office.

William S. Morton is in Charlemont today on business.

Miss Mary Boldue is visiting friends in Three Rivers.

Miss Annie McKenzie will spend Thanksgiving with her brother James in Thordyke.

Tony Farrell's "Garry Owen," played to one of the largest houses of the season Monday evening.

Erna Kirk has gone to work for E. R. Karner in the American Express company's office.

F. J. K. Miller will prompt for the Hibbard society's calico social Wednesday evening. Fred Field will prompt for the private dance in Odd Fellows' hall.

A special car will return to this town after the presentation of Edward Harrigan's play, "Old Lavender," at the Columbia theatre house tomorrow evening. Every theatre-goer should avail himself of this opportunity to see this brilliant comedian.

Miss Annie Burns and John Morton were married at the town office Monday evening by Clerk Munson.

Supt. Whipple and men re-commenced work at Forest park this morning, constructing the road on the Gilead street extension.

Miss Mary Heffernan is able to be about after her dangerous attack of fever.

The DeBarthe liquor case came up for trial this morning before Judge Dixby and was continued until Monday.

A most attractive entertainment will be given at St. Mark's parish house this evening when Mons. F. J. Bernier of Boston, will give a wonderful exhibition of magic from a large and inexhaustible repertoire of the latest tricks and illusions. Mons. Bernier is one of the best magicians who has ever appeared before the public and will be greeted this evening with a very full house. The price of admission has been made low, 25 cents, so that none need miss seeing his wonderful performance.

The Caledonian club has voted to attend the celebration of St. Andrew's day in North Adams, Friday evening, in a body. George Kerr is taking the names of persons who desire to go, so as to arrange for special electric cars.

Company M will drill at the new armory this evening, for the first time.

F. A. Weston intends to begin the steam work of the new mill December 10. The Good Government club will meet tonight at their quarters on Myrtle street.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

James Donovan, who was injured by falling from a building in North Adams, is improving.

The firemen's hall will be held tomorrow evening in Waterman & Moore's opera house and promises to be a great success.

The two debating societies of Williams college will not meet this week on account of Thanksgiving.

Miss Alice Howland left town today for New York city where she will spend the winter.

A large number of people from this town attended the dedication of the new Temperance hall in Blackinton last night.

Miss Lena Hull who has been visiting at the home of Dr. J. B. Hull, has returned to her home in Berlin, N. Y.

Joseph Patterson has bought the milk route of John Lamb and has taken possession.

People were unable to use the telephone yesterday on account of repairs which were being made between this town and North Adams.

"Phil" Draper, fullback on the Williams' eleven, who was injured in the Dartmouth game and who has since been in the infirmary is able to be out again.

Capt. Hickey is still unable to receive credit for articles donated to the married ladies' table at the fair: S. J. Kellogg, pair shoes; James Chase, quarter of beef; A. Gardener, silver sugar bowl; and P. A. Chambers, meerschaum pipe.

James Robinson is quite ill with tonsillitis.

Louis Lamb has accepted a position in New York and will leave soon for that place.

BRAYTONVILLE.

The Democrats of ward 1 held a meeting in the school house last evening and about twenty were present. Michael Fallon of Braytonville was chosen chairman and James Boulger of Braytonville, as secretary. The following were then chosen as delegates to the convention: James Maher, West Main street, Michael O'Brien, Greylock, Michael Fallon, Braytonville, J. C. O'Connor, Braytonville, James Boulger, Braytonville. Ward committee, Patrick Muller, Braytonville, John Grace, Michael O'Brien, Greylock. Edward Lloyd has sold his business on West Main street to Clarence Odell of Richview avenue.

One of the automatic sprinklers in the picking room, directly over the office, burst last Friday morning at 1 o'clock. It was soon discovered by Night Watchman John Dunn, who immediately turned off the water. A number of bags of colored wool were wet and considerable damage was also done to the office books.

The Y. P. S. C. E. will hold a business meeting and social Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. One of the features of the evening will be an auction sale, T. N. Sykes auctioneer. Refreshments will be served. All are cordially invited.

Miss Sarah Williams will be present at the C. E. meeting this evening.

POWELL.

Prof. Dutton, magician and ventriloquist, gave an exhibition of his powers in Parker hall Saturday evening. The entertainment was one of great merit, as the audience testified by their frequent applause. This is the first high-class show that has struck this town in some time and as such it was appreciated, as a crowd of about 100 persons were present. Prof. Dutton appeared again last evening.

The children of the Junior Epworth league gave a five cent supper in the vestry of the Methodist church Saturday afternoon. It was well attended and the children made a nice little sum.

A play entitled the "Peak Sisters" will be given in Parker hall Friday evening by the young ladies of the Baptist church, under the direction of Mrs. A. H. Potter. This same play was presented here some twelve years ago and met with great success. Supper will be served in the Baptist parlors immediately after the close of the play. Price of play, and supper twenty-five cents.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Old Lavender." Of this excellent attraction, which will be at the Columbia tomorrow evening, the New York Tribune says:

"There is not in the whole world a nobler or more pathetic story of low life in a great city than Edward Harrigan's 'Old Lavender.' The story, reaching the heart at all times is enlivened by the most natural and excellent humor, while the types portrayed are of striking familiarity. The play is human, and when this tribute has been paid it would be hard to say any more. Mr. Harrigan in this admirable early product of his has come nearer to the touch of nature than in any of his later pictures of city life, for in this he has not reached a certain class, but the whole human family.

This is, too, a more thoroughly finished characterization on the American stage than Mr. Harrigan's Coggswell. It ranks with the few great creations of the past twenty years, and is, in its way, as entirely an artistic performance as Mr. Jefferson's Rip Van Winkle. Like the latter, it will live in the memory of playgoers as long as memory itself shall live."

At the Columbia last evening the H. Henry's minstrel company gave a thoroughly up-to-date minstrel performance to a large and appreciative audience.

Many interesting and pleasing innovations were produced which successfully caught the applause of the audience.

In the opening part the company rendered some pleasing songs and specialties including a song by the wonderful boy soprano.

The second part consisted of a series of stereoscopic pictures portraying a trip around the world. It was accompanied by descriptive music and made a decided hit.

The next part was an olio of difficult and amusing acrobatic feats and clever dancing.

Mr. H. Henry then appeared before his band and rendered an excellent cornet solo, responding to an encore with a sweet execution of Ben Bolt.

The excellent performance was concluded by their latest specialty, the marching gladiators and living bronze statuary.

RETURNED PRIZES.

Waters Intends to Fight Against His Alleged Illegal Disqualification.

BOSTON, Nov. 26. - Bernard J. Waters of Lawrence, the crack sprinter, will contest the order of disqualification passed upon him by the A. U. Waters was disqualified on a charge that he accepted cash prizes in an athletic meeting at Lawrence.

He will carry the matter into the New York courts. He says he has affidavits to prove that the prizes when given him at Lawrence were returned to the committee in charge of the meet.

Marine Disasters.

FLYING, Eng. Nov. 26. - The British steamer Halifax City, which left London on Nov. 24 for St. John, N. B., arrived here yesterday, having lost a propeller blade.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 26. - British ship Lillian Robbins, from New York, June 4, for Shanghai and Hong Kong, has been towed into Saigon in a badly crippled condition.

HALIFAX, Nov. 26. - Tugs have been unsuccessful in trying to float the steamer Thames, ashore at Potters' ledges, and she is being stripped.

Rights of Newspapers.

MONTREAL, Nov. 26. - The case of the Canada Review against Archbishop Faber for $50,000 damages, through putting the paper under the ban of the church, came up for judgment yesterday. Judges Tait and Taschereau, both Catholics, decided that the bishop had the right to condemn any paper that spoke contrary to the teachings of the Catholic church. Judge Archibald, a Protestant, dissented, and gave the Canada Review $10,000, on the grounds that the bishop's action was an unjustified interference with the press and was on an appeal taken by the Canada Review from the adverse judgment of Judge Doherty in the superior court. The appeal is accordingly dismissed, there being 2 to 1 against it.

AN ADDRESS

Of Undoubted Interest to the Public.
(From the Boston Herald.)

An address may mean a promulgation of Mr. Somebody's ideas of something to be expounded in a crowded hall or crowd the columns of some scientific journal. This address, however, is of a practical kind, bearing on the every-day matter of our common health. It is the home address of one who has been greatly benefited after long suffering, and who wants the public to know it and benefit by the truth.

Mrs. Mary McCarthy, 63 Albany St., Boston, Mass., tells in a straightforward manner that "three years ago she first noticed pains in her back, but did not pay much attention to them. They became worse, however, and three months ago, she says she was almost a wreck. Even sitting was painful, and when attempting anything requiring bending or stooping of the body it was excruciating. She says she has applied mustard plasters all the way round her body, but the pains returned. She saw DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS advertised at BRADBURY'S DRUG STORE and bought a box and began their use at once. 'She says, 'I am now taking the second box, and they have certainly helped me wonderfully, and I hope others suffering from kidney troubles will read this and get as much good as I have.'"

These are the kind of addresses we like to make to the public. People must be convinced, and that by easily-found proof. We can send you addresses by the score from every part of the country, but we know you want, and should have, near-by testimony. Our daily message to you is that DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS is the never-failing remedy for all diseases of the kidneys, and are in daily use all over the United States. Just think of it! A remedy so universally known that when a man remarks, "My kidneys aren't right," there is some one near at hand to say, "Well, take Doan's Kidney Pills, and that will settle it."

For sale by all dealers. Price 60 cents, or mailed by Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

A TRUE LOVE MATCH.

Harold McCormick and Edith Rockefeller United in Marriage.

Bridegroom Unable to Leave His Apartments.

An Alliance Which Means the Piling Up of Vast Fortunes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Harold McCormick is sick at the Hotel Buckingham. There is nothing serious the matter with Mr. McCormick, but by the advice of his physicians his marriage to Miss Edith Rockefeller took place in Mr. McCormick's room at the hotel at noon today, instead of in the church, as originally intended.

Rev. Dr. W. H. Faunce performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Dr. John Hall. Miss Alice Rockefeller, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Emma Rockefeller, Miss Carrie McCormick of Chicago, Miss Scotland and Miss Caldwell of New York, and Miss Frances Adams of Boston. Cyrus McCormick and Ransom Blaine, the little nephews of the groom, attended as pages. Stanley McCormick, brother of the groom, attended him as best man.

Married For Love.
A genuine love match is the alliance of Miss Edith Rockefeller and Harold Fowler McCormick, and these two young people are quite as unassuming and modest as any two lovers in all the land. Miss Rockefeller will some day inherit from $30,000,000 to $50,000,000. The fortune which young McCormick can build up may never equal this amount, but he already has enough to keep the wolf from the door. Harold McCormick is the son of a self-made man. His father, Cyrus McCormick, was known as the "Reaper King." He invented a patent reaper, and when he died, in 1881, left a big fortune. His sons have been carrying on the business ever since. One of Harold's sisters married Emmons Blaine, who died a few years ago. Harold's income is about $100,000 a year. He is 35 years of age.

Harold graduated at Princeton with much credit to himself. Since then he has been devoting his attention to the reaper business.

Miss Edith Rockefeller is 24 years of age. She would hardly be called handsome or even pretty. She is rather short of stature, not being much over five feet in height. She is a blond, but not of a decided type. For fashionable society she does not care at all. Although she has lived in a mansion near Fifth avenue for several years she is almost unknown in New York. Before the announcement of her engagement her name was rarely seen in the newspapers.

Not a Society Woman.
In fact, society never saw her at all. She busied herself in hunting up poor families and planning to become a missionary to foreign countries. This girlish ambition gives the key to her whole life. Brought up in a distinctly religious atmosphere, she has continued to regard the pleasures of fashionable societies as vain and hollow.

Miss Edith can converse almost as well in French and German as she can in English, and she knows a good deal of Spanish and Italian. She even learned the Japanese language when she was preparing for the missionary work she intended to do.

She understands how to manage the affairs of a big house, and can read Horace in the original. Her musical education is a very thorough. Her loving home to be a wife breaks up the somewhat famous home orchestra. Her father plays the violin; his married daughter, Mrs. Strong, plays the second violin when she is at home; Edith plays the cello, and Alta the piano. Edith has not neglected her body while training her mind. She is an expert swimmer, can ride a spirited horse, delights in skating and sides a bicycle a great deal. Altogether she is quite an athletic young woman.

Mr. McCormick and his bride will take a wedding tour of four months, and Egypt will be one of the countries where they will spend the most time.

When they return they will go to Council Bluffs, Ia. There they will make their home, and Mr. McCormick will become a partner with his brothers in the great business of the McCormick Reaper company which was built up by his father.

Bailey Runs Three Shows.
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—A few days ago it was stated, and denied, that the Sells Bros. had consolidated with the Barnum & Bailey show. The terms of the deal have not been made public.

THE END IS NOT YET.

Over Fifteen Thousand Armenians Killed During the Past Month.

Even the Sassoun and Moosh Outrages Oudone.

Influential Persons Compelled to Place Blame Upon Armenians.

Boston, Nov. 26.—The following letter has been received in this city from a reliable correspondent in Constantinople:

The Turks have induced some of the subsidized European papers to speak of these crimes as Armenian outbreaks, etc. But the ambassadors have full reports, which they ought to publish, that indicate all this, and show conclusively that the attacks, within a day or two after he signed the reform scheme, ordered the Armenians to be massacred in order that there should be no question of an Armenian majority in any of the provinces. The people flew upon the spot, and so did not execute the sultan's wish to the full. But the loss of life has been awful. Moreover, there seems no way of preventing more of the sort.

It is the most awful crime of the century, because it is so persistently falsified by its authors. Everywhere the story is the same; a deliberate preparation, and then a story sent to Europe that the Armenians attacked the inoffensive Turks and were reduced to order after a few had been killed.

Worse times are in store for us. Europe is divided in counsel, and the Turks find that nothing is done for this crime, will go on to extremities.

The highest Moslem court has declared that the sultan cannot lawfully be restrained in the exercise of his will, since he is the representative of God for the whole world.

From 15,000 to 20,000 people have been cruelly slaughtered during the last month, and in consequence no less than 100,000 persons, heretofore dependent on them for their daily food, are now in want. The coming winter will witness a vast amount of suffering. It is not alone at Sassoun, but all over the land where these occurrences have taken place.

TRUE STORIES SUPPRESSED.

Accounts of Massacres Too Horrible to Be Given to the Public.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—A dispatch to The Daily News from Constantinople, giving a general résumé of the situation, declares that the recent massacres put the earlier outrages of Sassoun and Moosh entirely in the background.

If either England, France or Russia could publish the stories of the Armenian cruelty by their head-cooked consuls, all Europe would stand aghast at the proof, surprised to think such things possible. Wherever these consuls have investigated matters, they have found that the accusation that the Armenians provoked the riots is false.

A correspondent of The Telegraph announces that strenuous efforts are being made throughout the Armenian provinces to compel clergymen and prominent persons, by threats, to sign addresses to the sultan, declaring that the Armenians provoked all the outbreaks. It is claimed that the one recently from Erzeroum was procured in this fashion.

The correspondent of The Daily News at Odessa says that a private dispatch from the peninsula of Anatolia announces that the Kurds in several districts have renounced obedience to the Turkish empire and declared a religious war, the extinction of the Armenians being the avowed object.

Prompt Measures Advocated.
BOSTON, Nov. 26.—The Armenian atrocities formed a subject of discussion at a meeting and banquet of the Congregational club of Boston and vicinity last evening. Rev. Dr. R. Porter presented a report of the outlook committee, in which it was argued that the most summary, prompt and relentless measures should at once be pushed for bringing to an end the reign of terror, even though the United States be obliged to send an armed force, with General Nelson A. Miles in command. The report expressed confidence in Secretary of State Olney.

SUCCESSFUL VENTURE.

"Detroit Potato Patch" Plans Have Worked Well in Boston.

Larger Profit From Harvest Than Anticipated.

An Important Object Lesson to Those Inclined to Be Faint-Hearted.

Boston, Nov. 26.—The report of the "committee on the cultivation of vacant lots," which have been at work for the past year under the direction of the Industrial Aid society, has made its appearance. It is extremely interesting from an economic standpoint, and reveals such a commendable degree of success resulting from the carrying out of its plan, that the possibility of this method of utilizing vacant land areas in the city for the benefit of the "dependent" class.

The committee found conditions in Boston very different from those in Detroit. The lots placed at their disposal were found to be small and widely scattered. It was found advisable to hire a tract of land that could be used as one farm. A farm of 60 acres between Franklin park and Forest Hills cemetery was hired for $150, and the services of a practical farmer were obtained at a salary of $50 a month to oversee the work.

Fifty-two applicants put in an appearance at the farm, and about one-third of an acre was given to each. Potatoes, beans, corn, turnips and cabbages were the vegetables principally planted. Several women were among the workers, and in most cases the lots were well cared for.

Every applicant was pleased with the result of his work, and they realized a larger profit from the harvest than they had anticipated. There was no trouble from trespassers, and because one was given a better lot than another. There was the most kindly feeling on the part of the workers, and an inclination to assist one another.

Following is the general summary of the committee: In summing up the results of the undertaking, we think it has clearly demonstrated the fact that there are poor people in Boston (and doubtless a very much larger number would avail themselves of the opportunity) who would gladly use their unemployed time in raising potatoes and other vegetables.

It has shown them what a little labor in their own behalf can do; that the value of what they have raised is more than they have been accustomed to receive yearly in charity, and that by their work they can maintain their self-respect. This is an important object lesson to those who are in need, out of work, or faint-hearted.

It has also shown how much can be raised on a small piece of ground; has created a desire for farming on a larger scale, and may be the means of inducing some of the unemployed to go to farms in the country. A few days' work with large returns is a practical point gained for all, helper as well as helped.

A LIBERAL VIEW.

Miss Willard's Reply to Recent Criticisms Concerning Her Attitude.

Boston, Nov. 26.—A communication was read at the annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. yesterday from Miss Frances Willard in reply to the protest of the Boston union against the resolution adopted by the national body inviting Catholic and Hebrew women to send fraternal delegates to the W. C. T. U. convention. Miss Willard, after referring to the fact that the resolution was adopted by a practically unanimous vote in the national convention, states, in reply to another protest against allowing Catholic priests to take part in the religious exercises, that this custom is not a new one by any means.

Miss Willard then says: "Not one word of protest from any one of our 10,000 local unions has ever been made until now, and I freely admit that if anyone must be called to account for these manifestations of appreciation between two of the most influential temperance societies of the republic, you have directed your protest where it belongs, for I am responsible in the sight of God and man, and I am proud to fraternize with a temperance society of Catholics 'that will hiss a Catholic senate who defends the Tammany ring and applaud a Protestant police commissioner who denounces that bulwark of municipal brutality.'"

Opinion of Prosecutors of the Priest Who Committed Murder.

DOMINICK O'GRADY. MARY GILMARTIN.
O'Grady had fallen in love with Miss Gilmartin in Ireland, and had followed her up with stern persistency. She tried his close attention and the tragedy was the result.

Cuba's Greatest Battle.
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—A Cuban messenger, who arrived at the Cuban junta yesterday direct from the seat of the revolution, reported that on Nov. 19 a severe battle took place. The news has been withheld from newspapers. The battle occurred at Tanagasso. The Spanish forces consisted of 10,000 men, while the Cubans had but about 4000. For 36 hours the opposing forces fought, but the Spaniards were unable to drive the Cubans back. Finally, General Antonio Maceo of the Cuban army arrived with a force of 3500 men. With the aid of this reinforcement the Spaniards were quickly routed. General Aldive is reported to have been killed in the battle, and the total number of killed and wounded is placed at 600. General Gomez secured 700 rifles and a large amount of ammunition. This is believed to be the heaviest battle of the revolution.

Died With Boils On.
GOLDSBORO, N. C., Nov. 26.—Jesse W. Bunn, a notorious white man, widely known and feared throughout the county, was convicted of a capital offense of an inhuman nature and sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment. Soon afterward he escaped from jail. Bunn swore that he would kill any officer that should try to arrest him. Last Sunday Sheriff Scott saw his man driving along the road with his wife and son. Scott called to him to surrender, but his only reply was a persistent effort to get his gun leveled on the officer. The sheriff finally fired. Bunn returned the fire, and then, dropping his gun, grabbed his pistol, but fell back dead before he could use it. The sheriff was yesterday fully exonerated by the coroner's jury.

Many Killed by Explosion.
BARCELONA, Nov. 26.—A terrible accident occurred yesterday at Palma, capital of the island of Majorca, 133 miles south of this city. Eighty persons, most of whom were women, were employed in emptying old cartridges outside the walls of the town, when one of the cartridges exploded in some unknown manner. There was a large quantity of powder that had been taken out of the cartridges lying about over a large area, and this was ignited by the discharge of the cartridge. A tremendous explosion followed. The bodies of 17 dead have been found, but it is feared that many more were killed and some of them will die.

Newfoundland Law.
ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Nov. 26.—The appeals made by a number of liquor sellers against convictions imposed by local magistrates for smuggling were sustained by the supreme court yesterday. The indictments being quashed. This involves the collapse of the whole litigation against smuggling, it being felt that the government cannot keep certain persons in custody while others are at liberty. It is possible that the board of revenue will now intervene and impose fines in all cases.

Conflicting Testimony.
CLEVELAND, Nov. 26.—The coroner's inquest on the Central Viaduct street car disaster was resumed yesterday. J. R. Campbell testified positively that no red light was shown over the gates. Outcome In Doubt.
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Clarendon hall was crowded yesterday with housewren strikers, who came for the benefit stipend of $5 a week allowed them by the union.
